

EXHIBIT C

VEZA Telecom, Inc.'s Application for a Certificate of Interexchange Authority to Operate as a Reseller
of Telecommunications Services in the Entire State of Illinois

Exhibit C

Maria Alfieri
1210 Huntcliff Village Ct.
Atlanta, GA 30050

2004 – Present Alfieri Enterprises, Inc., Atlanta, GA

President/CEO

Founded a consultancy dedicated to providing financial advisory and management assistance for newly formed small businesses in the Atlanta area. Services include evaluating and counseling on business plan development, company evaluations, marketing plans, tax consultation, and collection plans.

2001 – 2004

Zoom-i-Net Communications, Alpharetta, GA

Regulatory Manager

Worked directly with underlying carriers, state, and government agencies, to properly handle regulatory matters. Managed team of 13 representatives. Implemented and updated all new FCC requirements and regulations.

2000 -2001

BellSouth, Atlanta, GA

Small Business Account Manager

Responsible for maintaining needs of business clients. Worked directly with Marketing Department in offering new products and services. Responsible for training and management of all business sales associates.

1998 – 2000

Residential Finance America, Atlanta, GA

Loan Officer and Processor

Responsible for processing new loan applications. Advised clients on available loans and rates.

1996 – 1998

Wachovia Bank, Atlanta, GA

Account Specialist

Provided information and assisting clients requesting new accounts, rate information, account changes, and credit applications. Responsible for training specialist's at new branches.

Education:

GA Perimeter College
Georgia State University, B.S. Business Administration

Bruce D. Grammer
RESUME

Mr. Grammer received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Electrical Engineering Technology from Old Dominion University in Norfolk, VA. Prior to receiving his degree he worked in various management and technical positions. His technical experience has focused on the design, development, implementation and management of sophisticated voice and data communications systems including all aspects of transmission and control. Mr. Grammer is also experienced in the management and administration of contracts for both government and private projects.

Experience

Synergy Telecommunications Corporation

2000 – Present

Senior Vice President & CTO

Representative Projects:

Consulting – Providing technical consulting services in wireless connectivity and terrestrial connectivity and network design to customers such as Qwest Communications, PSINet, Capital One, TecNet, and TRW.

Ghana, West Africa – Provided network infrastructure design and installation/implementation of a satellite earth station and free space optic links interconnecting to remote locations to support telecommunications growth in Ghana.

Microwave System – Engineered, furnished, installed, and implemented a digital microwave link to provide alternate and diverse connectivity for the NOAA facility at Wallops Island, VA.

Free Space Optics – Evaluate products for inclusion in the Syntelco portfolio of products. Typical installations include links in downtown San Francisco to support NASA, Washington DC metropolitan area to support commercial clients.

Local Communications Network, Inc.

1992 – 2000

Vice President, Engineering & Technology (1998-)

Operations Manager, Atlanta (1994-1998)

Program Manager (1993-1994)

VEZA Telecom, Inc.'s Application for a Certificate of Interexchange Authority to Operate as a Reseller
of Telecommunications Services in the Entire State of Illinois

Exhibit C

Bruce D. Grammer – Page 2

Representative Projects:

Ireland – Preparation, submission, and subsequent approval of application for unrestricted telecommunications license in the country of Ireland. Provide advisory assistance to Irish regulatory agencies.

Sprint/FBI Microwave System – Designed and implemented a multiple DS3 microwave system between Pittsburgh, PA and Clarksburg, WV.

Atlanta Teleport – Managed the development and implementation of a new international teleport facility.

Independent Consultant

1992 – 1993

Consultant

Representative Projects:

Satellite Teleport Facility- Provided site selection, land acquisition and zoning support, and teleport design for a new teleport facility.

Telecom Systems Integrated, Inc.

1988 – 1990, 1991 – 1992

Director, Program Support Services

Representative Projects:

Guantanamo Bay Navy Base- Design, engineering, and implementation of a complete system upgrade of the telecommunication facilities at GTMO. Upgraded three DBX switching Systems.

Port Huaneme Navy Base Telephone System- participated in the design, management and implementation of a complete telecommunication system for the base including~10,000 switched lines, and new wiring.

MCI Telecommunications

1990 – 1991

Project Manager

Representative Projects:

Network Mangement and Administration System (NEMAS) – Developed requirements, coordinated systems, departments, and personnel, managed implementation, and provided follow-up.

CHARLES F. WOODS
43405 Covent Garden Drive, Ashburn, Virginia 20147

CAREER SUMMARY:

Unique perspective and solid business acumen culminated from a broad background with both entrepreneurial and well-established technology companies offering tangible and intangible products. Proven ability in the following business disciplines:

- * Sales and Marketing
- * Consulting Services
- * Government Program Mngmt.
- * Strategic Planning
- * Channel Management
- * Business Process Engineering

TELECOMMUNICATIONS EXPERIENCE:

Synergy Telecommunications Corporation
President & COO

2000 – Present

- Founder of Syntelco, a convergent telecom/technology enterprise that capitalizes on its multi-disciplinary expertise and management depth to provide communications, technology products, customized solutions and consulting services either directly to businesses, institutions, and government entities, or indirectly as a strategic partner or subcontractor to such entities existing service providers.
- Negotiated distributor agreements with five Free-Space-Optical (FSO) manufacturers.
- Established Representative Agreements with several microwave manufacturers.
- Sold and built FSO, microwave and satellite solutions for domestic and international clients.
- Established Syntelco as a USA Department of Defense (DOD) Government Contractor.
- Develop carrier and enterprise client base for Syntelco services.
- Established various revenue programs including Network Access Services and Consulting for national and international carriers.

Local Communications Network (International Carrier-Satellite & Broadband Systems Sales)
Director

1998 – 2000

- Director LaserLink Transmission Systems:
Developed business plan for USA sales and marketing of Free-space 155 Mbps LED and Laser technology-based systems to IXC, ILEC, CLEC, and ISP market segments. Participated in contract negotiations, performed market analysis, established pricing and distribution strategies, initiated client contact and established test and evaluation sites for the product line.
- Director Switch Systems Operations:
Evaluated and negotiated contracts for acquisition of switching systems and satellite earth station monitoring and control products. Identified significant multiple-year carrier billing errors; negotiated settlement and implemented program to continue monitoring of carrier billing.

Charles F. Woods

Page 2

Impact Products & Services (Telecommunications Business Development & Consulting Services)
Founder and Principal 1995 – 1998

- Telecommunications Business Consulting:
Provided Operations Management Services to GSA Licensee for public telecommunications services serving more than 9000 government locations.
 - Managed payphone service providers, local exchange carriers and AT&T relationships.
 - Functioned as the primary interface with GSA Concessions and Contract Officers.
 - Performed hands-on, day-to-day, management of business operations.
- Sales and Marketing Programs, Millimeter Wave Radio Products
- Business Development, Wireless Cable TV and 18GHZ Microwave Systems

One-2-One Communications, Inc. (Inter-exchange Carrier)
Vice President, Partners Sales 1993 – 1995

- Developed and implemented new alternate channel marketing programs, pricing strategies to increase market share in commercial, wholesale and public telephone segments.
- Functioned as the VP Corporate Affairs Officer after One-2-One filed for bankruptcy protection.
- Chief Operating Officer to reengineer American Paytel, a subsidiary providing multi-state COCOT pay telephone services to over 1500 locations.

Impact Telecommunications Corporation
Founder and Principal 1991 – 1993

- Performed consulting services for manufacturer of microprocessor-controlled network devices.
- Negotiated teaming agreements with manufacturers of Answer Detection Systems.
- Established distributors to service the following markets: Inter-exchange Carriers; Operator Service Providers; Switchless Resellers; and Hospitality Industry.

American Public Communications
Executive Vice President Sales and Marketing 1990 – 1991

- Recruited, trained, and supported an alternate channel sales force.
- Developed national site acquisition program for Pay Fax system locations.

Teltronics, Inc.
Vice President, Sales 1989 – 1990

- Refined distributor program, implemented pricing strategies, and increased distribution channels.
- Directed sales efforts to achieve 1989 sales of $8 million.

Charles F. Woods
Page 3

American Telenet Systems

Vice President, Sales and Marketing

1986 -1988

- Recruited, trained and supported a 400 agent nation-wide sales organization.

Mitel Datacom, Inc.

Director, Market Development

1984 – 1986

- Consistently exceeded quarterly objectives in sales to IXC market.
- Promoted from Regional Manager to Director, Market Development.

T.A. Communications, Inc.

Vice President, Operations

1982 – 1984

- Selected switching equipment and negotiated purchase contract; performed network provisioning; and managed constructed and staffed Atlanta and Orlando switching centers.
- Established an Interconnect Division at Hobis, Ltd, a subsidiary of T.A. Communications.

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

In depth expertise in Information Technology: LAN and main frame programming, systems analysis, and operations management with industry experience in hospitality, retail, direct mail fulfillment, and financial applications.

EDUCATION:

B.S. Business Administration